Last Wednesday afternoon Clyde Meyer very pleasantly entertained several of his little friends at an easter party, that being the day on which he registered his fifth year. The afternoon was passed in playing easter games, and a dainty lunch was served to which the little ones did ample justice, after which they departed with the best wishes for their friend.

Y. Echevevia of El Paso arrived last Friday evening and has accepted a position with J. W. Cain as porter for the new hotel which is about to be opened in the Clark & Co. building. Mr. Echevevia is a bright agreeable young man and has a number of years of experience in the hotel business, and his connection with the new hotel will doubtless be a great help to the success of the undertaking.

Professor F. A. Jones, who is in charge of the Government geological department for this territory, was transacting business in our town last Saturday. He is making a tour of this part of the territory collecting statistics of the mines of the various counties, and as this work is of great importance to the territory, superintendents and owners of mining property should make a point of seeing him as he passes through the towns and give him all possible information in regard to the condition of our mineral interests.

About two weeks ago two young men came to our town and left their horse and buggy at the Deming livery stable while they took the train for some point east; a few days later Constable Cipriano Baca received word from W. R. Hutchinson, of Central, saying he had lost a horse and buggy. An investigation proved this to be the one driven by the young men and that they were deserting soldiers, but no track of them was to be found after leaving here. Mr. Hutchinson was notified to come after the rig, which he was glad to do.

SEEN FROM A WATER TANK

Short Paragraphs of Railway Doings Gathered From Various Sources.

A carload of fine sheep passed through here last Saturday, consigned to Sam Dennis, the hustling butcher of Santa Rita.

Albert Lindauer, the leading merchant of Las Palomas, was a visitor in Columbus the other day.

Picnic.

The picnic season appears to be here in all its glory, each week reports of picnic parties come from various sources. Last Saturday quite a large party made up from two or three rooms of the Deming school went out to the Byron ranch for the day, and they put in full time. As the shades of evening began to fall the big two horse wagon with its merry crowd failed to appear, and the mothers who were waiting began to grow uneasy, and about 8 o'clock when the party still failed to come a party started out to hunt them fearing they had fallen a prey to the wild beasts of the mountains some miles out they were met coming slowly towards town, the result of their delay being a broken double tree, no harm was done by the break, other than making some of the party walk about two miles to borrow another double tree while the remainder of the party waited for them. Finally when they arrived about 10 o'clock they might have said: "I've had a perfectly lovely time, I'm tired most to death."

One Game Each.

In the two games played between the Yellow Kids and the Clifton nine at Clifton Saturday and Sunday last, the games went one to Deming and one to Clifton, the first game being won by the Kids by a score of 9 to 18, while the second game was lost by two runs, thus leaving the odds seven in our favor. The boys report a fine time, and are loud in their praise of the hospitality of the Clifton people and particularly of the ball team of the Arizona town.
